JAPAN

iCLA

Eliza Chan, University PA

iCLA, a newly established college in April 2015, is located in Kofu, Yamanashi Prefecture in Japan. It's only two hours away from Tokyo station. Its parents institution, Yamanashi Gakuin, is famous for fostering Olympic athletes over its 70-year history. The establishment of iCLA represents a new milestone: top-notch liberal art college. A Broad, Interconnected, and International Curriculum: CLA offers a wide range of linked and integrated courses. The connectivity of knowledge is one of the defining characteristics of our international liberal arts education. Learning is interdisciplinary. Classes are small. Learning is student-centered, interactive, and multi-directional. Through their journey into our curriculum and active-learning methods, students discover how to link and integrate knowledge. These intersections of knowledge and experience lead them to reach their potential in thinking creatively, critically, independently, and globally (CCIG), as well as entrepreneurially. Campus Life: Students live on campus and form close-knit communities and will form friendships across national boundaries that last a lifetime. They bond with each other and with the faculty.

Waseda University

Yvonne Yuan, Programme Officer

The English Undergraduate Degree Programmes' Admission for September Enrollment: Waseda University offers full-fledged, English-based degree programmes that allow students to receive a Bachelor's Degree entirely in English. As enrollment into the English-based programme is possible regardless of Japanese language ability, this allows our doors to be opened to a wider range of students, including those who have an interest in Japan or in studying there but are concerned about their lack of mastery over the Japanese language. Six schools: School of Political Science and Economics, School of Social Sciences, School of International Liberal Studies, School of Fundamental Science and Engineering, School of Creative Science and Engineering, School of Advanced Science and Engineering

Ana Gonzalez, Gallery Owner

Agnes Cohade, Gallery Owner

Art+ Shanghai Gallery was founded in October 2007 by four partners who share a long passion and involvement in art. Showcasing established and emerging contemporary artists from within China and abroad, Art+ Shanghai is dedicated to the exhibition, promotion, and development of Chinese contemporary art with a focus on unique artistic style and high quality artwork. Located in the heart of Shanghai's powerful North Bund arts district near the Rockbund Art Museum, Art+ Shanghai has its pulse on the contemporary Chinese art scene.

Landscape Architecture

Wendy Arts, Architect

Wendy Arts graduated from Wageningen University in the Netherlands with a degree in Landscape Architecture. She worked for 17 years as a garden and landscape architect, designing gardens and public and semi-public spaces. Landscape architecture is a creative process which takes into account the wishes and ideas of residents, users and other stakeholders. The landscape architect has to use their imagination to come up with innovative solutions for spaces, taking into account environmental concerns, social and infrastructure needs and requiring knowledge of ecology, soils, hydrology, geography and economics.

HOTEL MANAGEMENT

Kerry Hotel

Nate Ross, Brewmaster

I worked in the banking industry before I made the great leap to pursue a career in professional brewing, and haven't looked back since. I left the shores of Australia and gained my first brewing job in one of the world's great brewing cities, London. This opportunity allowed me to showcase my skills on the commercial scale, with what started as a passion for homebrewing in the kitchen. I relocated to New Zealand to further my brewing experience, and I have been honoured to have won beer awards at major competitions in NZ and Australia. I'm now excited to be a part of the growing craft beer scene in China.
