

Math

In Math we are learning about organizing data. We get a data from the World Bank and organize it on Excel.

By choosing two years, then you delete all the data for names which aren't countries. Once we've done this we would arrange the numbers per 100s or 200s or 1000s. And from these resources of each year we would create a Histogram chart per year.

