

Matilda Finds Happiness

Matilda was a child who loved to read books.
Her mother on the other hand was more interested in her looks.

Matilda met a teacher. Her name was Miss Honey.
Whenever she was around, the classroom felt so sunny.

Terrible Miss Truchbull was the horrid principal's name.
Whenever she was around, the mood was lightening, thunder and rain.

Matilda's favourite thing was making up stories in her head.
Her favourite time to do this was at night lying in bed.

Matilda was super excited because Miss Honey became her best friend.
They became book buddies and had a very happy end.
