More than a school...

Collège du Léman is a co-educational school with both boarding and day students. Founded in 1960, it is located in Versoix, Switzerland, a residential area 15 minutes from Geneva. Students can choose between an English, French or an optional bilingual programme. In addition, Collège du Léman offers 104 activities including sports, the fine arts, and a variety of charities and clubs. Our mission is to help form well-rounded individuals thanks to:

- Strong academic programmes
- A bilingual option
- Social engagement
- A cultural and international experience that will help students succeed in a constantly changing world.

Campus

Our 8-hectare campus boasts modern, state of the art facilities. Students can enjoy our 10 science labs, over 100 classrooms, library, football field, basketball court, tennis courts, dance room and swimming pool. Students are also provided with iPads, allowing them to enhance classroom learnings.

A home away from home...

Collège du Léman provides a caring environment with a strong family spirit. Our house parents make students feel safe and at home. Boarders are assigned to one of 14 boarding houses according to their age and gender. Two or three students of different nationalities share a room, allowing them to have multi-cultural experiences

Academic programmes

Collège du Léman offers five different academic programmes, all of which ensure access to the most prestigious universities. The English as an Additional Language programme (EAL) is available until Grade 11. Movement between certain curricula is possible, subject to the Principal's approval; for example a student could move from IB1 to High School Diploma, or from the Francophone to the Anglophone Programme.
