DEAR FAMILIES,

iD Beijing (the International Diplomatic Network), in association with the British School of Beijing, Sanlitun, is proud to present FUNDANCIA, the first ever Family Ball in Beijing.

FUNDANCIA will celebrate children and family fun through dance, music, colour and fantasy. Chaoyang Theatre performers will amaze us with their acrobatic feats while a scrumptious dinner is served to guests in the majestic Kerry Hotel Grand Ballroom. The night will continue with DJ Kitchen who has proven himself over and over again by getting everyone (adults and children alike) on their feet.

Stilt walkers, unicyclists, jugglers, balloon makers, face painters, acrobats and gymnasts will create a circus-like atmosphere that will stay imprinted in our families' memories as one of the highlights of family life in Beijing.

FUNDANCIA is not only about having FUN and DANCING though. During this event we aim to raise enough funds to finalise the construction projects that the British School of Beijing, Sanlitun and the Parents' Association have embarked upon with The Migrant Children's Foundation at Mingyuan School, Beijing.

So join us on April 16th for what promises to be the highlight of Beijing's social calendar for 2016.

IMPORTANT LOGISTICAL DETAILS

WELCOME TO THE PARTY!

The event will start at 5pm in the lobby of the Grand Ballroom of The Kerry Hotel. Mocktails, cocktails and canapés will be served while guests are entertained by stilt walkers, face painters, balloon artists, jugglers and magicians. Several photo opportunities will be available and photos will be printed on site (complimentary service).

DINNER AND THE SHOW

When the Ballroom doors open, children will proceed to their free-seating tables together with accompanying ayis (where applicable) and will help themselves to a buffet dinner. Parents will have separate pre-assigned seating in the same ballroom, at round tables for 10 guests each. Parents will be able to assist their children with their buffet dinner before taking their own seats for a three-course meal.

Once the children have finished their dinner, three sets of performances will start, coinciding with the serving of the first course, main course and dessert, for the adults. Performances will include the Chaoyang Theatre acrobats as well as a musical performance from the British School of Beijing, Sanlitun's choir and instrumentalists.

The premise is for the children to be entertained sufficiently for the adults to enjoy their dinner.

LET'S DANCE

Following the dinner and the three sets of performances the dancing will start and we invite parents to let down their hair and share in the children's fun dancing.

DRESS CODE

The dress code is ball gowns and dinner jackets. While we understand that many children enjoy dressing up, others don't, and this is also fine (all we ask is for no fancy dress costumes please).

TICKET PRICES

Early bird ticket prices (until 25th March) cost 900 RMB and include one adult + one child. Thereafter, the same ticket costs 1000 RMB. Additional children and accompanying ayis who will eat from the children's buffet table and sit with the children cost 200 RMB.

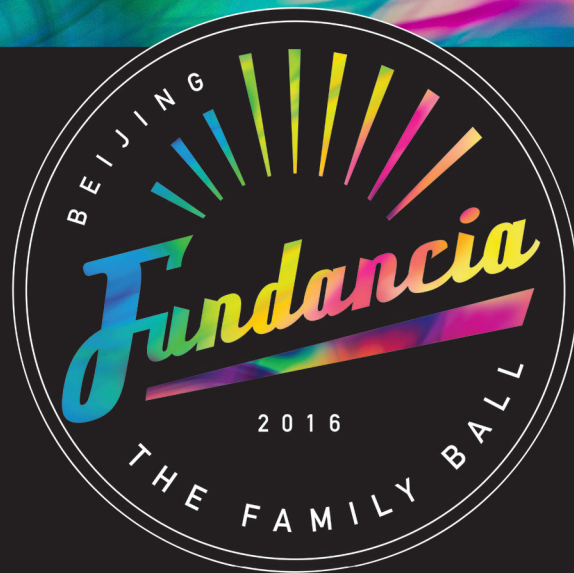

AGE ADVICE

Kindly note that while children of all ages are welcome to join, the entertainment is most likely to appeal to children aged between 4 and 12 years of age. The noise levels are expected to be quite high.
