One-off Exceptional Support in the event of a Force Majeure Event

In the event of a Force Majeure Event, which prevents the provision of on-campus education services by the School for a period of one week or more, the School may provide and/or make available certain one-off exceptional support to Parents. The support measures made available will be determined and communicated to you by the School at the time of the relevant Force Majeure Event. The measures provided will take into account the circumstances of the relevant Force Majeure Event, including, without limitation, the provision of Virtual Schooling, the likely duration of the Force Majeure Event and the School year of the affected Students. These measures will be in accordance with the Ministry of Education and Higher Education (MoEHE) and Ministry of Public Health (MoPH) regulations and guidance.

FEE POLICY 2022-2023

1. Tuition fees are annual fees which shall be payable yearly or termly, in addition to other annual fees as stated and agreed by the Ministry of Education and Higher Education (MOEHE). An invoice will be issued on an annual or termly basis depending on parental preference. Invoices are payable in full on the day of each term.
2. For students who have been enrolled after the start of the term, payment is due within 7 days of receipt of invoice. Also, for the student who have enrolled after start of the academic year, the tuition fees will be charged on a pro rata basis if the student attends more than 4 weeks of a term. If the student attends less than 4 weeks of a term, a minimum of one month's tuition fees will be charged. For eligible Qatari students, if the student does not attend more than one month of Term 1, the Ministry of Education and Higher Education may not honour the 1st coupon.
3. Fees can be paid by bank transfer into the following bank account. Please quote Invoice number and student number as a reference and please send the notification to school's cashier at finance.NAISAK@nais.qa

4. If tuition is not paid for a student throughout the 2021/2022 academic year, the School shall be entitled to withdraw the child's place for the academic year 2022/2023 and block the child in the Ministry of Education and Higher Education's system (MOEHE). The School will also withhold the End of Year reports, Transfer certificates and examination results until payment has been made in full. However, the school will not prevent students from sitting for any End-of-Year examinations or any examinations assigned during the term as a consequence of non-payment of school fees.
5. The School shall be entitled to take legal action against the Paying Party in order to collect outstanding tuition fees and expenses and shall be reimbursed any reasonable legal and court expenses and other costs incurred in taking such action. If the Parent is not the paying party, the Parent shall as an additional obligation indemnify the school from and against all costs, expenses and losses of any kind arising out of or in connection with the failure by the Paying Party to pay the tuition fees and expenses, and the school shall be entitled to take legal action against the Parent for payment of outstanding tuition fees and legal costs if timely payments are not received from the Paying Party.
6. Regarding new enrolment/re-enrolment, the students whose tuition fees are NOT paid by the company DIRECTLY to the School, are required to pay a seat reservation fees, the amount, QAR 3,904 has been agreed and confirmed by the Ministry of Education and Higher Education (MOEHE). This fee must be paid at the time of signing and returning this agreement confirms your acceptance of a place. If the School does not receive the seat reservation fee (SRF) by 1st May 2022, the student will be removed from the class list and put on a waiting list. Therefore, their placement may be given to a new applicant. This seat reservation fee (SRF) will be deducted from the first term invoice and is non-refundable in the event that one subsequently decided not to take up the offer of the place on the agreed start date.

7. Once a student has completed a full academic year at the School, this agreement may be cancelled at any time upon the School receiving a full term's notice. A full term's notice requires a written notification received by the School. Any overpaid tuition fees will only be refunded if the one term's written notice is provided. When less than one full term's notice is provided, the fees for the next term are payable in full.
8. The School agrees to use its best efforts at all times to achieve its stated goals but the obligation to make the required payments of tuition fees shall not be conditional upon the School always meeting every goal.
