

Curriculum Synopsis

The aim of this course is to introduce students to the Arabic language and to immerse them with the cultural aspect that would help them build their language proficiency. Grammar will be one of the learning focuses as it builds the accuracy of the written and the spoken speech.

For this term, we will be covering “Food” and “Market place”. By the end of the term your son /daughter will have the opportunity to build the language skills through a variety of learning outcomes, which are outlined in the curriculum brief of term 2.

Listening:

Understand the general idea of short and simple texts and presentations about topics related to daily life, personal interests, and studies.

Reading:

understand key information in short texts related to everyday life or personal and academic interests.

Writing:

Write about a broader range of familiar topics, using sentences at the appropriate degree of cohesion.

Speaking:

Participate in conversations about familiar topics using a series of sentences. The speaker can also deal with daily social situations using several questions and a variety of answers. The speaker can usually express all that he wants to say about himself and his daily life. The speaker can put oral presentations about a number of familiar topics using a series of connected sentences.

Supporting at Home

Ask students to share what they are learning in class and have them teach you about what they know. You can support your child's learning at home by encouraging him to use the below interactive tool

Extending Beyond the Curriculum

To extend your child beyond the curriculum please encourage your child to read at home. We strongly recommend that all students read for a minimum of twenty minutes every day.

Here it is the website of our reading platform that the school offers to our students:

<http://www.kutubee.com/> (username and login provided by teachers). This can be installed on iPad from the play store.

Your child can improve the reading by using the Arabic library books. Please encourage your child to seek the help of the Arabic teacher to choose the books that interest him from the library.
