A Warm Welcome

Welcome to the first annual Nord Anglia Performing Arts Festival China, 2019 Orchestral event. We are all thrilled that BISS Puxi has had the opportunity to host this festival and that so many students have been able to travel across China to take part.

This is the first of many Performing Arts Festivals in China that are exclusive to students at Nord Anglia schools and it is the result of the hard work of our talented staff across the Nord Anglia network. Nord Anglia Performing Arts China Festivals are among the many China regional activities hosted by our schools throughout the school year.

As a student at a Nord Anglia Education school, your child benefits from Nord Anglia's collaboration with The Juilliard School and The Juilliard-Nord Anglia Performing Arts Programme. It is thanks to this that we welcome our esteemed conductor Oliver Hagen. The unique privilege of our collaboration means that our young people benefit from accessing the very best artists from one of the top performing arts institutions in the world.

As we aim to embody our 'Be Ambitious' philosophy in all that we do, we have offered this programme to not one, but two symphony orchestras. Students have enjoyed working hard on preparing the repertoire and have also had the opportunity to participate in different activities, many making life-long friends along the way.

I hope that you enjoy the concert!

Our Conductor – Oliver Hagen from The Juilliard School

Conductor and pianist Oliver Hagen was born in New York City. He can be heard as a pianist on the 2017 Grammy-winning album of Steve Reich's music by Third Coast Percussion (Cedille Records). He recently toured with the percussion ensemble to Italy, performing at the MiTo Festival in Milan and Turin.

Conductor and pianist Oliver Hagen was born in New York City. He can be heard as a pianist on the 2017 Grammy-winning album of Steve Reich's music by Third Coast Percussion (Cedille Records). He toured with the percussion ensemble to Italy in 2016, performing at the MiTo Festival in Milan and Turin.

Hagen has conducted and taught at New York City conservatories for the last few years. Currently Hagen is on conducting and chamber music faculty at the Juilliard Pre-College Division and Music Advancement Program. Recently he has served as Preparatory Conductor for orchestras and ensembles at Manhattan School of Music's college division (MSM). Last October, Hagen conducted in concert with Tactus, the contemporary music ensemble at MSM. In the Fall of 2016, Hagen served as Guest Conductor for the Mannes Preparatory Division Philharmonic.

Between 2010 and 2012, Hagen was the Assistant Conductor of the Ensemble Intercontemporain in Paris. While there, he worked with Pierre Boulez, Susanna Mälkki, and Matthias Pintscher, among others. While with the ensemble, Hagen served as an Assistant Conductor at the Paris Opéra Comique and the Lucerne Festival Academy. Since 2012, Hagen has appeared with ensembles and orchestras such as the musicians of the Orchestre National de Lyon, American Composers' Orchestra, the New York New Music Ensemble, Ensemble LPR (le Poisson Rouge), East Coast Contemporary Ensemble, Ensemble mise-en, Firebird Ensemble, Ensemble soundinitiative, and the Orchestra of the League of Composers.

As one of the pianists in Ensemble Signal since 2008, Hagen has recorded music by Steve Reich (for Harmonia Mundi), Helmut Lachenmann (for Mode records), and David Lang, Michael Gordon, and Julia Wolfe (for Canteloupe). Hagen has worked directly with the above composers, as well as Charles Wuorinen, John Zorn, Unsuk Chin, Oliver Knussen, Roger Reynolds, and Kaija Saariaho. Having had a strong association with the Lucerne Festival Academy, Hagen took part in the 2009 performance of Pierre Boulez's Répons at the Lucerne KKL, as one of the solo pianists, with the composer at the podium. This will always be one of his most-cherished memories.

“As one of the pianists in Ensemble Signal since 2008, Hagen has recorded music by Steve Reich (for Harmonia Mundi), Helmut Lachenmann (for Mode records), and David Lang, Michael Gordon, and Julia Wolfe (for Canteloupe).”

Hagen completed his Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the Eastman School of Music, where he studied with Brad Lubman for many years. Hagen earned master's and bachelor's degrees at Eastman as well. His bachelor's degree is in clarinet and composition.

“ Thank you to Richard Chen & Quintin Reul for joining our festival and performing on bassoon; Jie Wan for performing on viola; and Yang Yuan for performing on double bass. Thank you to Hui Yin theatre for hosting our gala concert, and for supporting events such as these in the community.

Thank you to Best Friend Music for loaning instruments; Shanghai Samdik Musical Instrument Store for loaning instruments and providing the Erhu workshop; and Virtuoso Music for providing performance experience for the students. Thank you to Estelle Owens and Christy Wanamaker for loaning instruments and offering support. Thank you to Robert Hu and our extended peripatetic team for providing technical guidance and their expertise in sectionals. Thank you to all the staff across NAE China schools, and to Brooke Rogers and the team at Juilliard for working so passionately and creatively in order to put this festival together.”
