Juilliard

The Flagship Programme, Geneva

Summer Performing Arts with Juilliard is an immersive experience enabling your child to engage deeply in music, dance, or drama, and to make powerful connections with like-minded students from around the world. Your child will be inspired to explore and cultivate their creative talent through this unique programme taught by Juilliard artist faculty.

Our flagship programme at Collège du Léman in Geneva includes transformative music, dance and drama courses designed to cater to different levels of experience. The Discovery programme allows students to explore different interests, selecting a major and minor focus from the performing arts. The Young Artist course enables students to delve into one chosen focus.

It is an exclusive opportunity for students ages 10-18 to study closely and receive training from Juilliard artist faculty. We are incredibly excited that students of all levels and performing arts backgrounds can benefit from this summer experience.
