

Juilliard

Be Ambitious

Summer Performing Arts with Juilliard | Strings

Date: 2nd-15th July 2018

Location: Shanghai, China

Hosted by: Nord Anglia Chinese
International School Shanghai

A photograph showing a male violin teacher in a light blue shirt playing a violin, with a young male student in a black shirt also playing a violin. They are in a classroom or rehearsal space with music stands and sheet music visible.

Spend your summer training with Juilliard artist faculty!
Applications now open.

The Strings Programme, Shanghai

Summer Performing Arts with Juilliard is an immersive experience enabling students to engage deeply in music and to make powerful connections with like-minded students from around the world. Your child will be inspired to explore and cultivate their creative talent through this unique programme taught by Juilliard artist faculty.

Studying in both group classes and private lessons, young musicians will be empowered to take their craft to the next level. At the Nord Anglia Chinese International School in Shanghai talented students ages 12-18 have the opportunity to participate in this intensive training programme with other professional performing artists.

Key Information

- Age: 12 - 18
- Dates: 2nd – 15th July 2018
- Location: Shanghai, China
- Fees: Boarding 6000 USD, Day 4500 USD
(A 15% discount is available to all NAE students)

* Fees exclude flights and visa costs. Flights and visas are the responsibility of the student.

A group of young musicians, including several young women and one man, are seated in a rehearsal room, playing violins. They are focused on their instruments, and a music stand with sheet music is visible in the foreground. The background is slightly blurred, showing other musicians and instruments.

Applications are open – secure a spot now!
To find out more and apply, please visit www.naejuilliard.school/summer-arts-shanghai