

Curriculum Synopsis

The aim of this course is to introduce students to the Arabic language and to immerse them with the cultural aspect that would help them build their language proficiency. Grammar will be one of the learning focuses as it builds the accuracy of the written and the spoken speech.

For this term, we will be covering “My clothes”, “weather and Seasons” and “Colors”. By the end of the term your son /daughter will have the opportunity to build the language skills through a variety of learning outcomes, which are outlined in the curriculum brief of term 2.

Listening:

Understand simple words, expressions and sentences related to daily life. The listener can also understand limited information within an oral discourse, and the Reading:

Understand familiar words, expressions and sentences in short simple texts related to daily life. The reader can understand some key information in such texts.

Writing:

Write short and simple texts and comments about familiar everyday topics.

Speaking:

Communicate and exchange information about familiar topics, using memorized or his own simple phrases and sentences. The speaker can usually interact in daily social situations using simple short questions and answers.

Supporting at Home

Ask students to share what they are learning in class and have them teach you about what they know. You can support your child's learning at home by encouraging him to use the below interactive tool www.linguascope.com (username and login provided by teachers)

www.quizlet.com

alefbata (username and login provided by teachers)

Seesaw and the Arabic copybook.

Improve the reading by using the Arabic library books. Please encourage your child to seek the help of the Arabic teacher to choose the books that interest him from the library.

The Arabic department in the primary school will provide support to the extended writing. Therefore, your child may receive writing tasks with instructions that can help him produce good quality of writing. We recommend students get a dictionary, the Arabic bank of vocabulary, grammar books for second language learners like Arabic grammar in context.