Section 6 The application process

Thank you for applying to Dover Court International School (DCIS), or the “school”, part of the Nord Anglia Education family of international schools. To apply for admission to DCIS please submit the Application Form and the required documentation listed below. An application fee of SGD$1000 must accompany every application. Your child will only be registered on our waitlist once a complete application including the fee has been received.

The personal data collected from applicants and/or their parents/guardians pursuant to this application form will be handled by our staff, kept confidential and used by DCIS for lawful and relevant purposes including but not limited to:

- assessing the suitability of applicants' admission to DCIS;
- processing applications for admission;
- verification of the applicant's examination results, academic records and other information;
- school administration and operation after admission; and
- statistical and research purposes.

Personal data may be stored in our or our affiliates' database systems (which may be located within or outside Singapore) and online portals. Failure to provide the requested data may result in us being unable to process the application and may influence the outcome of the application. Please review our full Personal Information Collection Statement on the school website: <http://www.nordangliaeducation.com/our-schools/singapore/admissions/the-application-process>.

Important Note: Any special social, medical, dietary, psychological, or educational needs must be noted, with supporting information or documentation attached. If the applicant has been tested for any educational, social, emotional, or psychological purposes, the test results must be submitted with this application. Please refer to the declaration section of this application in reference to the withholding of any additional testing materials during the time of application. We strive to make every effort to place your child in the most appropriate pathway to meet their needs. As a child develops, unidentified needs may present following enrolment. In this case, we may need to re-evaluate a child's pathway to ensure that they are appropriately supported. This may require a movement of pathway (class).

The Admissions Process

- Review all the School materials and information including the Personal Information Collection Statement found on the DCIS website at <http://www.nordangliaeducation.com/our-schools/singapore/admissions/the-application-process>
- Complete an Application Form and provide all the required documentation on this checklist:
  - Application Form
  - Copies of school reports for the previous 24 months. A certified English translation is required for reports not originally issued in English
  - Any documentation relating to any past, current or future additional services provided to your child
For example, an IEP/ISP; educational-psychological evaluation; speech and language reports; OT reports; etc.
  - A letter is requested from the parent detailing any particular skills, talents, achievements or interests (e.g. musical, sports, arts, ICT, etc.) and any other information which may be helpful for your child's transition into DCIS
  - A recent passport-style photo of each student (attached to the Application Form)
  - A copy of the passport ID page for the student and each parent (for non-Singapore citizens/permanent residents)
  - Copies of the front and back of the student and parent Employment and Dependent's Passes
  - Re-entry permit of child (for Singapore permanent residents)
  - A copy of the student's birth certificate/citizenship certificate/Singapore NRIC, (for Singapore citizens)
- For Singapore citizens, please note that approval is required from the Ministry of Education. We are unable to accept students on Long Term Visitor Passes and Student Passes.
- Parents/Guardians will be notified once the student's complete application and documents have been received.
- All students will be required to take an assessment, the assessment will form part of the application process.
- Children applying for one of our Support Education programmes will be invited to school for a formal assessment with our Team. The assessment will be charged separately at the prevailing scale of charges (this can be found in the schedule of fees). Please note that these assessments will only take place once a place becomes available.
- The Admissions Committee will review the student's complete application and assessment and make a decision about acceptance to DCIS.
- Families will be advised of the Admissions Committee's decision, the year level placement and start date. Possible outcomes are:
  - the student is accepted unconditionally
  - the student is accepted on a conditional basis
  - the students is accepted but placed on a waiting list*
  - the student is not accepted

**Registration on a waiting list does not guarantee a place at the school for the term for which the application is made. The school shall have full discretion in allocating places.*
- Once a place is offered, a family will have a limited period in which to accept the offer. A place at DCIS is only guaranteed once:
  - an offer has been made and the non-refundable and non-deductible Registration Fee has been paid in full
  - for Singapore citizen students, approval from the Ministry of Education has been granted
  - the Student Contract and Advisory Note to Students (Form 12) have been signed and returned to the Admissions OfficeThe Admissions Office will remove your child from the Application Process if the offer is not confirmed within the offer period
- Invoices for fees will be sent to parents/guardians and upon receipt of fees, the student's enrolment will be confirmed.

Declaration

I understand that DCIS reserves the right to dismiss, at any time, a student who does not possess valid immigration status, or has proven to be an unsatisfactory member of the school community. If, in the School's judgement, a student's conduct on or away from campus indicates that he or she is consistently out of sympathy with the ideals, objectives, and programme of the School, parents will be required to withdraw the student at once, even though there may have been no infraction of a specific rule.

I certify that the information provided in the application process to DCIS is complete and accurate and that no information has been withheld, including any prior academic, educational, emotional, or psychological testing results or support. I authorise DCIS to request further information from teachers, counsellors, administrators, and specialists. I understand that if complete and accurate information has not been provided, DCIS may be unable to provide tuition and may withdraw an offer of admission, or exclude or dismiss the student from DCIS at any future date. I have read and I accept the terms and conditions set out in the website, brochure, handbooks, and the accompanying documents. I consent to the collection, use, disclosure, processing and transfer of my personal data, and the personal data of my child and other family members, as set out in the Personal Information Collection Statement.
