

Dear Parents,

Welcome to issue 15 of the NAS Jakarta Newsletter 2020-21.

What a week this has been! We have enjoyed our “NAS Jakarta Week” with lots of special events but the highlight of the week has of course been the face-to-face learning for Year 4 – Y6/7 students. In this newsletter you will find photos of what face-to-face learning looks like on our campus with the protocols in place.

You will also read about our Drama ECA that has been running with Mr Brent. As Mr Brent is a qualified drama specialist as well as a music teacher, we look forward to offering more drama in the curriculum next academic year.

Last but not least, I’d like to remind you that our re-enrolment survey is now open for the new academic year.

Wishing you a lovely weekend!

Kind regards,

Rosy Clark
Principal

A Look at Learning

This Week’s Re-opening with Year 4 – Year 6/7

It was quite an emotional time on Monday, Wednesday and Friday as parents waved goodbye to their children and as staff welcomed them to the first face-to-face learning on our campus for 15 months.

Parents, nannies and drivers are not allowed beyond the lobby gate or side door so here is a snapshot of what learning and health and safety protocols look like in practice:

Arrival at school at 07:15

Face-to-face learning in the classroom

Collection point at 11:30

Entering School

Practising social distancing around the campus

Pick up time at 11:30

News of our Drama ECA from Mr Brent

Students in Key Stage 2 have been working on selected monologues and duologues, including some from Shakespeare!

They are interpreting short dramatic lines from famous films and learning theatre vocabulary.

Examining emotions, they are also making videos of themselves to communicate a certain feeling to the audience.

Tongue twisters are helping them to develop their articulation and the rhythm of speech.

What's New!

NAS Jakarta Week

Fun and energetic participation by the adults as well as the children at our first ever NAS Virtual Disco on Tuesday evening! A big thank you to Ms Melissa Martin, ably assisted by Ms Putri and Ms Lou for organising this.

Our second virtual author visit of the year was with Nick Arnold on Wednesday. Full respect from NAS for his energetic, funny show delivered in the middle of the night, UK time! I wonder which of his many science challenges your child enjoyed most during his show?

Thank you for supporting your child to get creative with their hair style on Thursday for our Crazy Hair Day.

Our special week ended with eye-catching outfits on Friday's Batik Day.
