

Curriculum Synopsis

The curriculum of Islamic studies in year two focus on short Surahs, Hadiths and Anasheed which are all easily understood, and are age related. The Islamic studies lessons are taught in a fun atmosphere and through simple conversation whilst ensuring that the child is learning at their pace. Furthermore, it aims to give pupils a clear, thorough understanding of Islamic teachings, moral behavior and Islamic etiquette, and its contribution to modern science.

Some of the influential personalities in Islamic history are studied, such as the life of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), role models, values and ethics. Moreover, student's skills in Tajweed are developed through reading the Holy Qur'an.

The Islamic syllabus covers five main areas which are imparted to students in a continuous and a systematic way to support their understanding, enhance their reflective thinking.

For the second term the students will study the following topics:

- Surat Al-Falaq and Surat Al-Nas (Divine Revelation)
Its very important to know the ways to protect ourselves, this surah teaches us an excellent way to protect ourselves.
- Pillars of Iman (The Islamic creed)
Learning about the pillars of Iman is the foundation of Islamic personality and firmly believe that Allah is the lord, the creator, the Sustainer and the provider of everything.
- My Prayers (Islamic ruling)
- Students should know the purpose of salah. Salah provides a means to ask and thank Allah for blessings. Salah is to act as a person's communication with God.
- Our Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) Nurtured by his grandfather and uncle (The Prophet's biography)

Supporting at Home

The support at home aims to document the student's relationship with the Holy Quran as the first source of knowledge, behavior, values, taste and beauty in order to build a Quranic mentality and psychology, by continuing to read the Qur'an and considering the provisions of intonation (tajweed).

One of the key elements of this support is to implant the love of Prophet Muhammad "peace be upon him" in the heart of the student through the experience of the Prophet's biography, and to highlight the life of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) as a good example and a role-model to follow.
