Year 8

Islamic Studies

General Aim of the subject

Islamic Studies provokes challenging questions about the ultimate meaning and purpose of life, beliefs about God, the self, and issues of right and wrong. It develops student's knowledge and understanding of Islamic faith, jurisprudence, Quran teachings, Islamic history and traditions which the people of the UAE have a strong belonging to. It offers opportunities for personal reflection and spiritual development. It enhances awareness and the understanding of religious theology, ethics and beliefs, teachings and practices. At BIS, Islamic Studies also studies forms of religious expression, as well as the influence of religion on individuals, families, communities and cultures.
