RE: SHOWCASE DRAMA PERFORMANCES IGCSE AND IB

Dear Parents and Friends,

We are pleased to announce a second evening of showcase performances from the Drama Department. In accordance with their syllabi (and the idea that every good actor needs a good audience) the IB and IGCSE Drama groups will be presenting scenes and monologues from their coursework requirement.

The performance will take place in the Auditorium on Tuesday 28 January beginning at 7:00 pm. IGCSE Drama students will be performing monologues from a variety of plays and the IB Literature and Performance students will be performing theatrical adaptations of scenes from Gabriel Garcia Marquez' Chronicle of a Death Foretold.

We hope that you will be in attendance, not only to support our students' work, but to enjoy the fruits of their prodigious labours.

Kind regards,

Justin Lenderking
Head of Drama
