Welcome

The Parents of BISS Puxi look forward to welcoming you to the FOBISIA Under 15's games taking place over three days from Sunday 20th November to Tuesday 22nd November 2016. We look forward to meeting the athletes and parent supporters from all the participating teams; Bangkok Patana School, The British International School HCMC, Discovery Bay International School, Tanglin Trust School, The British International School of Kuala Lumpur and Shrewsbury International School Bangkok.

As parents of Fobisia athletes ourselves, we have put together some information which we hope you will find both useful and informative. If you need any further information please get in touch with us.

Visiting Parent Coordinators

Janice Yeo (wechat : yjaniceus) tel : +8615901767111 email: yjaniceus@yahoo.com, or

Fiona Jones (wechat : fijonesinshanghai) tel : +8615801783247 email: fijjones@gmail.com

The parents of all our BISS athletes will also be on hand throughout the games to show you venues and answer any questions you may have. It is our intention to allocate a minimum of two BISS Puxi parents to each school as your point of contact, more information on this will be given on your arrival.

On behalf of the parents at BISS Puxi we hope that your athletes will have an enjoyable and memorable experience here in Shanghai.

Parent Liaison

Each school is requested to appoint a Parent Representative - to collect money, gather information and be the key person of contact for the parents of that school.

Janice Yeo and Fiona Jones are the Visiting Parent Co-ordinators for BISS Puxi and will be liaising with each school's Parent Representative regarding the Gala Dinner tickets, transportation arrangements and other items. If you require assistance with airport transfers, please let us know as we may also be able to help.

Shanghai 上海

Currently listed as the most populated city in the world, Shanghai has just over 24 million residents. It lies at the mouth of the Yangtze River and is the location for the world's busiest container port. Shanghai has a colourful history and many of its influential inhabitants have left their mark over the years in the architecture throughout the city.

Notable areas to explore include 豫园 (Yu Gardens) – made up of smaller areas, each of them are separated by undulating walls topped with the body and head of a Dragon. There is also a bustling commodities market nearby on 福佑路 (Fuyou Rd) – a great place to experience the fast pace of Shanghai life! Strolling down the 1km promenade on the Bund is also another great way to experience this vibrant city. Witnessing the transition from day to night from the Bund is a memorable experience (particularly if you are in an elevated position – Char Bar @ Hotel Indigo has a strategically positioned terrace to help make the most of the views). The city lights come on around dusk.

Currency Rate

This is a reference table for the exchange rate. Please refer to real time currency software for real time currency exchange rate, e.g XE.com

#	Unit	RMB
1	1 SGD	4.8861
2	1000 VND	0.3
3	1 HKD	0.8717
4	1 MYR	1.606
5	1 THB	0.1931

ATM's and Credit Cards

Please note that Shanghai is a predominantly cash society. Unionpay cards are accepted in many stores and chains but VISA and Mastercard are generally only accepted in the larger multinational stores. The closest ATM to BISS Puxi is the China Construction Bank on the corner of Jinfeng Rd and Baole Rd which accepts VISA cards for cash withdrawals.

Weather/Air Quality

Weather for Shanghai in November is cool, ranging from 9-20 degree Celsius. We suggest that you bring some warm clothing and a windbreaker or waterproof jacket. Air quality is fair and we are optimistic that the events can all take place outside as planned. For the latest updates, please refer to popular mobile applications like Weather, Global Pm2.5.

Taxis/Uber

Taxis offer a cheap and convenient way of travelling around Shanghai. In order to make your journey the easiest it can be we would recommend carrying some smaller notes (10, 20 & 50 RMB denominations) for shorter journeys. Downloading an app like City Weekend or Hi Shanghai before you come to Shanghai will give you access to "taxi cards" for venues and restaurants (this gives the address in Chinese characters). Most taxi drivers do not speak English (some will only speak Shanghainese) so having the address in characters makes it easier to be understood.

Uber is widely used and payment can be made via credit card. 百度地图 (Baidu Maps) is the most popular software used for location in China.

Local Food

China is known around the world for having some wonderful foods available. Here's a few of the local, less well known specialities that the Chinese like to keep for themselves! Xiaolongbao, Guotie, jiaozi, guihualianou, jianbing, dazhaxie, shaomai, qingtuan, xiaomigao etc, are easily available in any Shanghainese restaurants. You can get all of these at Yu Gardens too.

Around the Hilton Hotel

Close by the Hilton Hotel, Hongqiao is 老外街(Laowaijie) is as a pedestrian food street with food options from around the world. It is about a 10-15 minute walk from the hotel - exit the front of the hotel and turn right and right again until you reach the multi carriageway road. Turn right and walk for about 10 minutes until you see a pedestrian bridge crossing the road. Walk across the bridge and you will be at the start of Laowaijie.

If you would like to do some shopping whilst in Shanghai there is a large market situated on Hongmei Rd, easily accessible from Laowaijie. Continue walking through Laowaijie until you reach a road (Hongmei Rd). Cross the road (carefully!) and walk to your right for about 100 yards. The International Pearl City is on your left. You can purchase many types of goods here including toys, clothing, souvenirs, bags and shoes.
