Dear Parents,

Arabic Night

It was lovely to see so many of you at this week's Arabic Night. The weather was really pleasant, providing the perfect setting for the event. The children performing were a real credit to you.

I would appreciate your feedback on the event, so please email me and let me know your thoughts on the night. Your comments are valuable to help us plan future events.

Anti-Bullying Day

This event takes place next Wednesday, 24th February. You should have already received information about this last week from one of our parents at the school. Please encourage your children to support this by wearing something pink, even if it is just a small token such as a hairband, badge, etc.

The idea to wear pink as taking a stand against bullying originated in Nova Scotia, Canada in 2007 from two incredible students who decided to take a stand when a fellow student was being bullied simply for wearing a pink shirt. These two students went out and bought 50 pink shirts to give to fellow students to show their support for the boy that was being bullied.

Children will work on a large selection of anti-bullying activities throughout the day.

Forthcoming whole-school events:
