

Parents in Partnership WORKSHOPS 2017-18 | 8:30-9:30 am | Limanowskiego

Reading at Home 26th September 2017

Children read regularly at home. How can we make sure that when listening to our children read we are maximising the ways we can help them? How can we foster a love of books and reading? This workshop will offer practical ideas and suggestions.

Mega Maths Investigations 17th October 2017

How many baked beans are in a can? How long would it take to count to a million? This hands-on workshop will examine the crucial skills involved in problem solving and we will tackle a range of investigations.

Phonics 14th November 2017

Understanding phonics is crucial to learning to read and write. In this session, we will discover what we actually mean by phonics and arm you with the skills to support your child at home.

Reading Comprehension 12th December 2017

Reading for understanding is essential to developing a love of reading. This session will provide you with ideas for supporting children at home to develop their comprehension skills.

Instant ways to improve writing 16th January 2018

During this session we will explore the ways we can encourage our children to 'up level' their writing. This practical session will give you ideas and resources that you can immediately use with your child. Be prepared to be creative!

Tablets and the internet 20th February 2018

Technology is a significant part of modern life and our children, digital natives, are often adept at using technology to further their learning. Find out how you can support this at home whilst keeping them safe.

Mental Maths 20th March 2018

Discover a plethora of games and ideas that you can use to help your child with mental calculations and times tables.

Self Esteem 17th April 2018

During this session we will investigate why a healthy self-esteem matters for children and what we can do to support children in building their self-esteem.

Transition to the next year 29th May 2018

During this session we will discuss ways we support children in the transition to the next year group and how the process works at The British School Warsaw. Our aim is for children to be excited and looking forward to the next school year.
