We respect your privacy and only use your data in accordance with our Privacy Policy (see back page).

Personal Information Collection Statement

The personal data collected from applicants and/or their parents/guardians pursuant to this application form will be handled by our staff, kept confidential and used by British International School of Houston, L.P. (“we” or “us”) for lawful and relevant purposes including but not limited to:

- (a) assessing the suitability of applicants’ admission to British International School of Houston (the “School”);
- (b) processing applications for admission;
- (c) verification of the applicant’s examination results, academic records and other information;
- (d) school administration and operation after admission;
- (e) sending communications to parents and students including but not limited to newsletters and information about events and extra-curricular activities provided by the School or third party providers;
- (f) statistical and research purposes;
- (g) other school related purposes; and
- (h) alumni activities.

If any of our communications constitute direct marketing we will separately seek your consent where required by law.

We may disclose some of the data to third parties such as agencies (including the government of the United States of America), service providers and contractors (whether within or outside the jurisdiction in which the School is located) appointed by us to undertake some of our academic, pastoral and administrative functions. This includes transferring data between affiliates. We will not disclose any personal data to any external bodies or organizations unless:

- (a) Such disclosure is expressly provided for under this Statement;
- (b) Permitted to do so by the applicant or his/her parent/guardian; and/or
- (c) Permitted or required by law.

Personal data may be stored in our or our affiliates’ database systems (which may be located within or outside the jurisdiction in which the School is located) and online portals and where application is successful, such personal data will form part of the applicant’s official student records. It may also be stored in online student resources such as the global classroom.

Where such personal data is not required to be retained by law, such personal data may be destroyed within 24 months following rejection of the application or otherwise as required or permitted by law.

We may provide such personal data to the relevant PTA for inclusion in the PTA directory and other PTA activities. If an applicant or his/her parents/guardians do not wish for such data to be included in the PTA directory, please inform us.

We may place a student’s photo, video footage, name or school work in our or our affiliates’ website, social media, marketing materials, corporate communications (including annual reports) or publications.

In the event that a student already has a sibling at the School, the records of such sibling will be updated according to the data provided on the new student’s enrollment form where relevant.

Failure to provide the requested data may result in us being unable to process the application and may influence the outcome of the application.

All practicable and reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that personal data held by us is accurate. We will take all practicable steps to ensure security of the personal data and to avoid unauthorized or accidental access, collection, use, disclosure, copying, modification, disposal, erasure or other use.

The terms of the School’s privacy policy can be found at www.nordangliaeducation.com/our-schools/houston/privacy-and-cookie-policy.
